WASHINGTON CITY:

THURSDAY January 5, 1871.

No visitors will be received by the President on Cabinet days. (Tuesdays and Fridays.) nor will they be received on other days until after

The New York Tribune and other papers are making themselves a great deal of needless unhappiness over the idea that Sarratt's failure to get a hearing in Washington will advertise him into notice. There isn't enough of Surratt to make the people care a straw to see him, and the publication by THE STAR of his lecture divested his story of further interest by repetition. Since he left Washington on his lecturing tour southward he has failed to get an audience, even. He was advertised to lecture in Lynchburg, but the number present was so unsatisfactory that he declined to appear. The Lynchburg

"Some forty or fifty persons assembled at Holcombe Hall, and waited patiently for some time for the appearance of Surratt, and then quietly dispersed, not seeming to care much for their disappointment."

He also failed, probably for the same reason. to make his appearance at the hall in Alexandria on Tuesday night where he was advertised to lecture. The Baltimere Sun correspondent

"A few persons only collected about the hall where he had been announced to appear, but the place was not highted up, and nothing was heard of the lecturer." If Surratt had any expectation of sympathy from the Southern people in his lecturing tour, he has evidently found out his mistake by this

The Germans have made a very creditable record by the truth of the news they have given to the public throughout the war. But the obligation they recognize to deal honestly with the world at large does not hold good in regard to despondent indeed had it given credit to the Potomac water. tidings lately brought in by two pigeons who, as it proved, flew nome straight from the Prussian camp, where they had been captured in a balloon. Their missives told of the delight of the peasants of Normandy at the German occupation, the annihilation of the army of the Loire. the flourishing condition of brigandage, the universal anxiety of the provinces for peace at any price. But it is a significant fact that the Germans who prepared the hoax could find no Frenchman to aid them in carrying out the details; so the language betrayed itself in awkward idioms, the very handwriting was suspicious, there were various blunders of statement, and nobody was deceived.

One of the most notable events of the season in commercial circles is the failure of the Ames Brothers, of Massachusetts. Oakes Ames is a member of Congress; his brother Oliver is a Director of the Union Pacific Railroad, and both are men of immense possessions. It is certain, however, that they have become encumbered, and have at least asked for a suspension, though the Boston papers assert that their assets reach fifteen millions of dellars. assets reach fifteen millions of dollars, and only six millions liabilities. The Journal, of that city, says there is no doubt that in a few months Mr. Ames will be able not only to sustain himself and come out of this trial with a large fortune, but he will, without causing the loss of a dollar to any one, carry to a successful termination those projects which his energy and enterprise have induced him to participate in.

Among those who paid a premium for seats in Plymouth church, Brooklyn, at the late auction, is the notorious Joe Howard, of the New York Star, who pays a premium of $325 on the annual rent charged. He came in a little ahea! of Mr. Claffin, the great dry goods merchant. From which we are led to infer either that a bright little newspaper is better than a firstclass mercantile business in New York, or that Joseph's religious fervor is more intense than that of old bases and boxes. Most likely the

The work of laying wood pavement in the middle of I street, between 9th and 10th, has been completed, but the contrast presented by the wood in the center with the rough cobblestone sides, is not creditable to either the taste or enterprise of these who planned, and carried out, the so-called improvement. It looks too much like a pretentious fellow with a smoothlycroned stove-pipe hat, and coarse muddy shoes. out at the toes, and down at the heel.

It is now stated that Fred. Douglass will not be appointed a commissioner to San Domingo. It is not known what the chances of Savles J. Bowen are for a commissionership. We trust he may be appointed. Everybody here would be glad to have him go to San Domingo. For one thing, the climate is warm there, and the people of Washington would be glad to have him go to a warm climate.

The new law for regulating the social evil in St. Louis, by means of a registry and other regulations, not meeting the expectations of its advocates, it being found almost impossible to enforce the rules adopted by the Board of Health for carrying out its provisions, a new ordinance has been reported, remedying the defect in the first bill by duly providing for the punishment of offenders against its provisions.

Bonner, of the New York Ledger, contradicts in that paper the published statements that he will be present in this city at the celebration of Washington's birthday with his horses. He says he has received a great many invitations to exhibit them in different places, but up to this time has declined to let them go out of New

Our Washington grocers no doubt will speedily reduce prices on tea, coffee, sugar and spices to the extent of the recent reduction of the tariff on these articles, but if they would inform the public of the fact through the advertising columns of THE STAR, read by everybody, they would undoubtedly attract lots of customers. The early bird, &c.

The District of Columbia is running a race with Indiana. Last year forty-three divorces were filed in the courts, while the marriages were but eighty-three .- N. Y. Post.

Not so bad as that. There were 1,483 marrilees in Washington city alone during the year, while there were 48 divorces applied for in the entir District of Columbia, and 14 granted.

The following letters speak for themselves:

Washington. November 4th 1870.

Mr. Arthur Nations:—Dear Sir: After a very thereugh and impartial trial of your Crystal Discovery for a month. I feel compelled to acknowledge its very great superiority over any other article now in use for the purpose designed—the speedy restoration of the color and growth of the bair, and no one using it according to disections can fail, I am convinced, to attain this much desired result to perfection. The simplicity of the preparation and its entire cleanliness affords a new opportunity to the vast numbers utterly disgusted with the poisonous nostrums in use Having a large number of my personal acquaintances who use your preparation with equal success, I cordially recommend Crystal Discovery to all persons desiring to use anything of this kind. Very respectfully.

P. DOYLE, 701 I street, N. W.

87. NICHOLAS HOTEL, NEW YORK, Aug. 30, 1870.

Mr. Astaw Nations—My Dear Sir: The bottle of your "Crystal Discovery for the Hair," which I bought in your city some time since has given entire satisfaction. It has given to my hair its original color to perfection which was dark brown) in about eight days. I also sotice that young hair appears on the crown of my head, where I am partially baid. I predict its entire success. Inclosed find five deltars for half a cozen tottles for some comy friends. Please send immediately by express, and oblig Very truly yours, A. W. Foller

WASHINGTON, August 5th, 1870.

Mr. Arthur Nations—Dear Sir: I do not hesitate to say that your Crystal Discovery deserves to supercede all other preparations claiming to restore the growth and color of the hair. I have used it a week now, and my hair has already resumed its natural shade, and has ceased falling almost entirely. I cheerfully recommend it. Bespectfully.

MES. ANNIE MOURAIN.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., September 10th, 1870.

Mr. Arthur Nations—Sir: I have great pleasure in testifying to the excellence of your Crystal Discovery for the Hair. My back bair is remarkably long and thick, and become prematurely grey, this being hereditary.) In eight days it resumed its natural color, chestnut, but ural color, chestnut-brown, coloring every hair. I ble your preparation for its purity, pleasant odor, and freedem from all mineral and poisonous substances, as well as its other excellencies. I will recommend it to my acquaintances.

Very respectfully, MPSS L. * * *

The Borthwestern loans its money on First Mortgages at ten per cent.—the legal rate in the West—and has never lost a dollar of principal or interest. It has a low rate of mortality, the buik of its risks being in the West, where the climate is healthier. It is a purely mutual company, having no stockholders to draw out any of the earnings of the solicy holder's money. Considering these facts, it is evident that the Northwestern must be able to furnish insurance at less cost than most, if not all other companies.
